Springfield Man Sentenced for Producing Child Pornography

EUGENE, Ore.—Dusty Jacaway, 29, of Springfield, Oregon, was sentenced to 250 months in federal prison today for producing child pornography.

According to court documents, in October 2024, Lane County Sheriff's Office deputies located Jacaway in a vehicle with 13-year-old child (MV1). Officers secured the cell phones of Jacaway and MV1. Subsequent analysis of the cell phones revealed two videos Jacaway had curated, displaying him having sexual intercourse with MV1 in the back seat of his car.

A forensic interview with MV1 revealed the extent of Jacaway's abuse. Jacaway met MV1 online when the child was 12 years old and began having sexual intercourse with MV1 soon after. Jacaway also provided MV1 with methamphetamine. He would regularly traffic MV1 to a local pornography shop where he accepted money and drugs from men in exchange for allowing them to sexually abuse MV1. Jacaway kept the money and threatened to kill MV1 if he were ever arrested.

Following the completion of his prison sentence, Jacaway will begin a life term of supervised release. He must also pay $3,000 in restitution to his victim.

The case was investigated by the Lane County Sheriff's Office and the FBI. It was prosecuted by Adam Delph, Assistant U.S. Attorney for the District of Oregon.
