Space Force Guardian and NASA Astronaut Brig. Gen. Nick Hague Visits Space Base Delta 1

PETERSON SPACE FORCE BASE, Colo. – Members of the media are invited to Peterson Space Force Base for a presentation and media interviews August 12 at 11:00 a.m. with U.S. Space Force Brig. Gen. Nick Hague, a NASA astronaut and the first Space Force Guardian to launch into space.

As Commander of NASA's SpaceX Crew-9 mission for Expedition 72, Hague concluded a historic tour of duty to the International Space Station. His successful completion of over 170 days aboard the ISS wrapped up with his return to Earth on March 28, 2025, bringing with him a wealth of knowledge and experiences that will shape the future of space exploration.

We invite you to attend a media roundtable with Hague to hear about his remarkable journey, his accomplishments in space, and his efforts to inspire the next generation of STEM students.

Media members will have 30 minutes to ask Hague questions, who will be available to speak on his experiences as a U.S. Space Force Guardian and a NASA astronaut across his career. Hague can speak to partnership between the Space Force and NASA, advancement of human knowledge and achievements in space, and inspiration of the next generation.

In order to register for access to the installation, media representatives interested in attending must RSVP to Space Base Delta 1 Public Affairs at SBD1.PA@spaceforce.mil Please identify specific names and contact numbers for media professionals who plan to attend no later than 12:00 p.m. MST on August 8

Media who have RSVP'd should meet at the Peterson SFB West Gate Visitor Center located at 1334 Stewart Ave, Colorado Springs, CO 80914, no later than 10:30 a.m. on the date of the event. From there media will be escorted via government vehicles on base. Due to current base security measures, media who have not RSVP'd will not be granted access.
