Body of Missing Local Man Found on Beach

SEASIDE, Ore. – Oct. 10, 2025 – A body discovered on Seaside Beach early this morning has been identified as Wayne Wilson, 64, of Seaside. Wilson was reported missing the evening of Thursday, Oct. 9, prompting an overnight search effort by Seaside Police and Seaside Fire & Rescue.

At 7:37 a.m. this morning, Seaside dispatch received a report of a man found down on the beach near the Avenue A approach. First responders confirmed the individual, identified as Wilson, was deceased and called the Clatsop County Medicolegal Death Investigator to the scene to complete an examination.

Wilson was last seen at approximately 6:30 p.m. on Thursday near his residence in the area of N. Wahanna Road and Broadway Street in Seaside.

The City of Seaside wishes to thank Seaside Fire, Police, and Dispatch for their continual efforts on behalf of the community. The City also extends its gratitude to the community member who took the initiative to call SPD early this morning and report finding Wilson.
