Gresham Police Ask for Public's Help Locating Murder Suspect After One Year

RELEASE DATE: Jan. 22, 2026
CASE NUMBER: 25-3314

Gresham, Ore.— Gresham Police is asking for assistance with locating the suspect in a fatal shooting that occurred one year ago at a Gresham Park.

On Jan. 23, 2025, shortly after 4 p.m., Jorge Ovidio Mateo Vasquez, 17, was shot and killed in an apparent unprovoked attack while playing on the futsal court at Vance Park. Investigators identified the suspect, Camerino Vides, who is now 17, of Gresham, but have been unable to locate him.

Detectives are asking for the public's help with locating Vides. The public is urged not to approach him as he may be armed. Anyone with information on Vides' whereabouts is asked to call 911 immediately.

"Someone knows where Vides is," said Detective Huffman. "We need the community's help to locate him so we can hold him accountable and bring some measure of justice to Jorge's family."
