Clatsop County Fair Announces 2026 Concert Headliner and Return of the Carnival

The 2026 Clatsop County Fair takes place July 22–25 at the Clatsop County Fair & Expo Center in Astoria.

ASTORIA, OR — Country music artist Kameron Marlowe will headline the 2026 Clatsop County Fair concert on Friday, July 24. Marlowe is a rising country artist who has built a strong national fan base with his blend of modern and traditional country music.

The Kruse Brothers, back by popular demand, will open the night.

The 2026 fair will also mark the return of the carnival, which has been absent since 2021. Rainier Amusements will provide rides and midway games throughout the four-day event.

“We are really excited to bring the carnival back to the fair this year,” said Kyle Sharpsteen, Manager of the Clatsop County Fair & Expo Center. “The rides and games help bring families to the fairgrounds, where they can also experience the agricultural exhibits, livestock shows, youth programs, and community competitions that are at the heart of the fair.”

Presale concert tickets are available now.

- General Admission: $30
- Front-of-Stage Section: $45

Ticketing fees are not included. General Admission Prices will increase the week of the fair.
