What: Grand opening celebration for first facility in the nation to offer medical, legal, advocacy, and therapeutic childcare services in one location.

Members of the media are invited to the grand opening of the Family Peace Center of Washington County (FPC). Elected officials, community leaders, and members of law enforcement and community support organizations will be on hand for the celebration. The ceremony will include remarks from key supporters and guided tours of the new facility.

More than 20 partner organizations are now housed at the FPC and are offering integrated support services for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, elder abuse, and human trafficking.

This collaborative center is the first in the nation to provide medical services, law enforcement, housing support, mental health care, basic needs support, and a therapeutic preschool for survivors in one location.

Trillium Community Health Plan, a coordinated care organization serving Oregon Health Plan members in the Tri-County area, awarded a $1 million grant to FPC to help fund capital expenses.

When: Thursday, April 30, 2026, 5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Where: Family Peace Center of Washington County, 1100 NE Compton Dr. Hillsboro OR, 97006

Who: Interview opportunities with:

- Rachel Schutz, FPC Executive Director
- Kevin Barton, Washington County District Attorney
- Suzanne Bonamici, U.S. Representative, 1st District of Oregon
- Christian Stringer, Special Counsel to the Attorney General, Oregon Department of Justice
