U.S. Attorney's Office Files Petition Seeking Information to Locate Violent Criminal Aliens in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore.— Today the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Oregon filed a petition seeking information from four Oregon counties, Clackamas, Marion, Multnomah, and Washington, to locate violent felons who are likely subject to removal from the United States and under these counties' supervision.

On November 24, 2025, the U.S. District Court granted a similar petition against the same counties for information to locate 10 violent criminal aliens Oregon officials released into the community. The violent criminal aliens had been convicted in Oregon of a variety of crimes, including rape and sodomy of a minor child, assault, kidnapping, and manslaughter. In its order, the court noted that Oregon law "explicitly permits state law enforcement agencies to 'exchange information with a federal immigration authority.'"

Currently, there are more than 300 active immigration detainers at the Oregon Department of Corrections for criminals likely subject to removal from the United States.

"The District of Oregon will continue to prioritize the safety of all Oregonians," said Scott E. Bradford, U.S. Attorney for the District of Oregon. "We will continue our efforts to prevent violent criminal aliens from further harming our community."

This petition seeks information possessed by the counties to locate more than 30 violent criminal aliens who have victimized Oregonians through a variety of criminal conduct like sexual abuse, rape, assault, and domestic violence. Following prison sentences, Oregon officials released these violent criminal aliens into Oregon communities rather than to federal immigration authorities, who sent immigration detainers to Oregon officials. State officials did not honor those detainers and released the following violent criminal aliens into Oregon communities:
