JORDAN RAY BEYER CONVICTED IN SEXUAL ASSAULT CASE

HILLSBORO, Ore- On May 12, 2026, a Washington County jury found Jordan Ray Beyer, age 24, guilty of 15 counts related to his rape and sexual abuse of multiple victims. Senior Deputy District Attorney Chris Lewman prosecuted this case before Judge Erik Bucher.

The defendant is a prolific sexual offender who, over a period of several years, victimized at least five female victims. His abuse followed a similar pattern with each victim. He used physical force and threats of harm to the victims, their families, and himself to effectuate sexual abuse. He often used his firearm to threaten the victims. These assaults took place in Banks, Forest Grove, and Beaverton.

Victims contacted the Washington County Sheriff's Office, which prompted an investigation. Deputies arrested the defendant in March 2025. Investigators believe there could be additional victims. Anyone with information about the defendant should contact law enforcement.

The Washington County District Attorney's Office commends the work of the Washington County Sheriff's Office. We would also like to praise the victims in this case for reporting this abuse.

A sentencing hearing is scheduled for July 20, 2026.
