We invite you to be part of Council for the Homeless' signature annual event, Gathering for Change, returning this October to the historic Kiggins Theatre in downtown Vancouver.

As our largest fundraising, education, and community-building event of the year, Gathering for Change raises essential funds to support our work — including keeping the Housing Hotline open, providing essential outreach services, and helping people in Clark County move from homelessness into shelter or permanent homes. This is more than an event. It's a chance to take action and stand with those working every day to ensure everyone in our community has a place to call home.

What to Expect

- Enjoy appetizers, dinner, and drinks from BluVan Foods
- Join CFTH CEO Sesany Fennie-Jones as she shares the future of Council for the Homeless and the latest on the homeless response system in Clark County
- Be inspired by a powerful story from a CFTH staff member with lived experience as they share their story and thought-provoking conversation on housing + homelessness
- Fun live auction packages and a chance to support the mission of Council for the Homeless

We hope you'll join us and help fuel the momentum toward lasting change in Clark County. Together, we can make a difference.
