Gresham Police Searching for 11-year-old with a History of Running Away

RELEASE DATE: April 1, 2025

CASE NUMBER: 25-13007

Gresham, Ore.— Gresham Police is asking for the public’s assistance with locating a missing 11-year-old who was last seen at H.B. Lee Middle School, in the 1100 block on NE 172 Ave.

Alexander “Alex” Lewis, 11, is described as a Black male who is approximately 5-feet and 9-inches tall and weighs 160 pounds. Alex was last seen wearing a grey speckled sweat suit. He is considered endangered because of his young age. He was last seen at approximately 3 p.m., and did not return to his home. Alex has run away in the past and is familiar with TriMet.

If anyone has information about Alex’s whereabouts, they are asked to call 911.
